2020 PRIVACY POLICY

The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102 (FTC 16 CPR Part 313) mandates that we inform you of our Privacy Policy regarding your nonpublic personal information which you furnish to us in order to prepare your income tax returns. This information is provided by you or obtained by us with your authorization. Sources may include personal interviews, tax organizers, worksheets and other documents necessary to provide professional services to you.

Be assured that we do not disclose any nonpublic information about you to anyone, except with your permission or as allowed by law.

We restrict access to your personal nonpublic and file information to ourselves and any associates who might need to access that information in order to assist us in your return preparation in accordance with accounting and government standards.

We maintain strict physical, electronic and procedural measures to safeguard your nonpublic personal information.

Your privacy and thus your confidence and trust in us are very important. Please contact us if you have any questions or concerns regarding the privacy of your nonpublic personal information.
